

NO PEACE UNTIL HUERTA RESIGNSWilson's Message Touches on Mexican Situation.

OUTLINES AMERICAN POLICY

President Urges Speedy Currency Legislation, Favors Ultimate Independence of Philippines, Choice of Presidential Nominees by Popular Vote and Amending Sherman Anti-Trust Law to Make Its Exact Meaning Clearer.

Washington, Dec. 2.—In his message, delivered at a joint session of the houses of congress at the beginning of the second session of the Sixty-third congress, President Wilson urged immediate currency legislation, devoted considerable space to the needs of the farmers and referred to the Mexican crisis. The Sherman anti-trust law, he said, should be changed so that its exact meaning would be clearer. The president also urged the choice of presidential nominees by the direct vote of the people expressed at primaries. On the Mexican situation the president said, in part:

"There can be no certain prospect of peace in America until General Huerta has surrendered his usurped authority in Mexico. Until it is understood on all hands, indeed, such pretended governments will not be countenanced or dealt with by the government of the United States. We are the friends of constitutional government in America. We are more than its friends; we are its champions, because in no other way can our neighbors to whom we would wish in every way to make proof of our friendship work out their own development in peace and liberty. Mexico has no government. The attempt to maintain one at the City of Mexico has broken down, and a mere military despotism has been set up which has hardly more than the semblance of national authority. It originated in the usurpation of Victoriano Huerta, who, after a brief attempt to play the part of constitutional president, has at last cast aside even the pretense of legal right and declared himself dictator. By his actions Huerta has forfeited the respect and the moral support even of those who were at one time willing to see him succeed. Little by little he has been completely isolated. By a little every day his power and prestige are crumbling, and the collapse is not far away. We shall not, I believe, be obliged to alter our policy of watchful waiting. And then, when the end comes, we shall hope to see constitutional order restored in distressed Mexico by the concert and energy of such of her leaders as prefer the liberty of their people to their own ambitions."

Currency Legislation Urged.

President Wilson urges the immediate passage of currency legislation. He asserts that business interests of the nation are waiting on the expected law before making large new investments or developing resources. The president also calls attention to conditions which exist at present, which make it very difficult for the farmer to finance his crop. He urges in his annual message provisions that will safeguard the farmer, help his credit and prevent a repetition of the necessity for the government to deposit large sums of money in the Southern and Western states so as to aid the producer, as was the case last fall.

The president's policy toward the Philippines is made clear. He urges the development of the Philippines, always keeping in view ultimate independence of the islanders. While he does not believe they are ready for self government today he believes that eventually they will be. He points out improvements that have recently been made by calling attention to the fact that more natives have been appointed on the Philippine commission than was the case previously.

On the question of direct elections the president says:

"I urge the prompt enactment of legislation which will provide for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of the several parties may choose their nominees for the presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions. I venture the suggestion that this legislation should provide for the retention of party conventions, but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platforms of the parties, and I suggest that these conventions should consist not of delegates chosen for this single purpose, but of the nominees for congress, the nominees for vacant seats in the senate of the United States, the senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees and the candidates for the presidency themselves, in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect."

Mexican Federals Evacuate Chihuahua City.

FOOD AND WATER ARE SCARCE

Part of Garrison Starts on Foot for American Border and Balance Retreats to the Mountains—Hundreds of Civilians, Including Women and Children, Are Walking Towards the United States.

Juarez, Dec. 2.—Rather than endure starvation the federal troops have evacuated Chihuahua City, which has been under siege for weeks, according to advices received by General Francisco Villa, the rebel leader. The evacuation leaves the city open to possession by the rebels.

Reports received by Villa say that Salvador Mercedo, military governor of the state, with 2,000 federal troops, has left on foot for Ojinaga, on the United States border near Marfa, Tex. General Jose Ynez Salazar and Pascual Orozco with more than 1,000 federals are said to have retreated to the mountains west of the city and hundreds of civilians, including women and children, have set out to walk to the United States border.

Besides being the capital of the state Chihuahua, with a population of 35,000, is the metropolis of Northern Mexico.

Neither in the Madero revolution nor in the present uprising has Chihuahua been taken from the federals.

Bloody Battle is Averted. Had the rebels reached the city and the federals resisted it was believed that a fight in the city would have resulted in great loss of life and property.

Conditions in the city were said to be such that life there was no longer endurable. The Spanish viaduct which conveyed water from the mountains was reported to have been destroyed and the food supply exhausted.

General Villa telegraphed details of the evacuation to General Carranza at Hermosillo, stating that the proposed advance of the rebels southward to Mexico City would now be expedited. "The report of the capitulation of Chihuahua is authentic," said Villa. "It came to me in an official dispatch. It is my purpose now to send a force to intercept Mercedo, who is fleeing to Ojinaga, and also to capture Salazar and Orozco."

ARMY HAS DIFFICULT TASK

Hard to Prevent Arms From Entering Mexico.

Washington, Dec. 2.—How the American border patrol has found it almost impossible to enforce the embargo against the shipment of arms and ammunition into Mexico was described in a report from Brigadier General Bliss, commanding the forces on the border, made public at the war department.

Practically the entire population along the international line, the report said, is in sympathy with the Mexican rebels and as a result large quantities of war munitions have been smuggled across in spite of the vigilance of the troopers.

General Bliss complained of the vagueness of the law, declaring that the instructions to the army are so general that too much of a task was imposed upon the troopers and junior officers.

Bank Seeks to Secure Land Owned by Missing Cashier.

St. Paul, Dec. 2.—Suit has been entered in the district court by the First State bank of North St. Paul against Arthur E. Nelson, the alleged absconding cashier of the institution; Susie E. Nelson, his wife, and William M. Clark of St. Paul. According to the complaint Nelson's defalcation, so far as now known, amounts to more than $30,000, but this figure is expected to be increased when the audit of the bank's accounts is completed.

The bank seeks title to lands and improvements on which a value of $12,271.75 is placed in the complaint. Nelson disappeared about Oct. 1. A sensation followed the news that he was missing. Efforts to locate him have been futile. The bank's officers made good the shortage and the depositors were protected.

FREE SEED EXPENSESecretary Favors Changing Plan of Distribution.

Washington, Dec. 2.—People who have received free seeds from the government will not be so favored in the future if congress adopts a recommendation of the secretary of agriculture contained in the book of estimates submitted.

The senators and representatives from Minnesota distributed about 350,000 packages of flower and vegetable seeds this year.

It is true that in some cases the government seed sometimes resulted in crops of vegetables on front lawns where only grasses and flowers are supposed to grow, but the custom was and is popular.

Secretary Houston asked for an appropriation of $296,000 for the purchase of seed, a decrease of $146,000 in the amount made available for the purpose at the last session.

Mr. Houston says he desires to discontinue the indiscriminate distribution of seed by members of congress and desires to return to the former practice of distributing where they will do the most good.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 2.—Five miners were entombed by a cavein, which extended from the fourth level to the thirteenth level of the Golden Circle mine here, and spread to the Christmas mine adjoining.

One of the five was rescued and one is known to be alive and uninjured in the Christmas mine. The fate of the remaining three is not known.

The cavein was caused by a gigantic rock slide from the fourth level and was not precipitated by an explosion.

LOSS IN CUSTOMS REVENUE

Receipts in November Decrease $4, 500,000 From 1912.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Customs receipts of the government for November fell off about $4,500,000, compared to November, 1912, according to the monthly treasury statement. November was the first full month of operation for the new tariff and if the month was a fair test of the bill's revenue producing powers the annual return from this source will decline more than $50,000,000.

EXTRA SESSIONSince Passage of Tariff Bill

MANY WANTED TO ADJOURN

Only Two Democrats Opposed Mandate of President Wilson—Power of Administration Illustrated by Manner in Which Followers Obeyed. Evans of Montana Gains Favor.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 2.—[Special.]—Senators and representatives suffer more from ridicule than criticism, and yet the senate and house invite such ridicule. Perhaps if put upon the bodies collectively there would not be so much resentment, but applied to individuals it causes more ill feeling against the newspapers than severe criticism of actions.

The manner in which the first session of the Sixty-third congress "pestered out" is funny. Here in Washington the national legislature has staged and enacted a great farce. Both houses have remained in session, although both desired to adjourn. There has been no business transacted for two months that could not have been postponed until the regular session. Congress has simply stayed in farcical session—in a most ridiculous position.

Presidential Power.

The manner in which President Wilson has controlled the legislative branches since he became president is a monument to the power of the man and the office. There has never been anything like it. In the days when Cleveland exerted power there were grumblings and open revolt. Theodore Roosevelt was roundly abused as a "boss," and many members of his party showed their disapproval.

There has been scarcely anything like disapproval during the first session of the Sixty-third congress. All Democrats have applauded their president and acclaimed him the man most like Jefferson that ever sat in the White House. Republican criticism has been tame, insipid and futile. Woodrow Wilson is the hero of the session he called, for he has dominated it.

Two Bold Men.

It would not be fair to history to let the session slip into oblivion without recording the fact that Myers of Montana in the senate and Thomas of Kentucky in the house fought for adjournment with all the force at their command, which was one vote each. Both used every parliamentary expedient to secure a formal adjournment of the session, but were able to command no one but themselves in support of their efforts. Both are Democrats, and they are entitled to all the credit that can be given them for boldly opposing the wishes of the president.

Made Himself Famous.

It is my theory that a man must do something to earn a reputation in the house. Congressman Evans of Montana is one who has done something, and his mail is full of letters of commendation. He attacked the whipping post in Delaware. He couldn't abolish it, couldn't even get action on his resolution, but that is neither here nor there. The fact that he severely criticized the whipping post and published in the official records the newspaper accounts of the suffering of criminals under the lash has brought him into the spot light. Do something different if you want to come to the front in congress.

"Breaking Precedents."

Because President Wilson has done a great many things that his predecessors did not do there seems to be a sort of conviction that the administration is breaking precedents at every turn. Such was the announcement when Secretary McAdoo appeared on the floor of the senate during the consideration of the currency bill. It was said that such action was unprecedented. Absolute bosh! Cabinet officers have been on the floor frequently during all administrations when something in which they were particularly interested was considered.

Postmaster General Hitchcock was a most earnest worker when he was trying to get second class rates increased. Secretary Wilson often came to congress and was on the floor when agricultural matters were considered. If one should look into it with all the facts he would find that it has been quite a common occurrence for cabinet officers to be on the floor of the senate and house when the legislation considered concerned their departments.

Owen's Lieutenant.

It is quite apparent that Senator Shafroth of Colorado is to be Chairman Owen's lieutenant during the consideration of the currency bill. Shafroth is a man who keeps steadily on any job he undertakes, and he has attempted to see the currency bill through.

Senator Hitchcock, Owen's opponent, will be alone on his side, for all his supporters on the committee are Republicans. But there are frequent consultations between them. All of the Republicans are expected to take considerable interest in the currency discussion.

WAITING FOR GASES

Dead or Alive.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 2.—Whether Ralph Lopez, the slayer of five officers and a fellow Mexican, lies dead in the Utah-Apex mine, or whether, avoiding the deadly gases in the mine, he has planned a dash for liberty, is a question unanswered.

Though openings in the bulkheads constructed at each of the tunnel mouths poisonous gases have been detected.

The only word from Lopez came when he approached the bulkhead at the mouth of a tunnel and called for his friend, Julio Corrello. But before the latter arrived he had retired into the depths of the mountain.

When Corrello was unable to get a response Mike Vukovich, a brother-in-law of Deputy Mandrich, who was killed in Saturday's battle, broke from a crowd of spectators and, brandishing a revolver, tried to break down the bulkhead to go after Lopez. He pleaded for the opportunity to penetrate the darkness and fight it out with the Mexican.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Enthusiasm over reports on what already has been accomplished by the woman suffrage movement, and even greater enthusiasm over prophecies of what the future will bring forth, marked the formal opening sessions of the forty-fifth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association.

In calling to order the delegates from all over the country Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the organization, declared: "The time is past when we say, 'Please let women vote.' This has been changed to 'We demand an amendment to the federal Constitution enfranchising women.'"

New York, Dec. 2.—Nearly 500 automobile drivers, both professional chauffeurs and owners of cars, went to the police courts in response to summonses handed to them in a crusade by the authorities against speeding. In November a new monthly record of automobile accident fatalities was established.

Fines of $50 or $25, amounting to $2,500, were collected from those found guilty. More than 100 refused to pay. They were sent to jail for from one to five days.

Magistrates announced that more severe penalties would be imposed hereafter. Several of the defendants were women.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Congress is asked to appropriate just $1,108,681,777 to operate the government of the United States during the fiscal year, 1915, according to the estimates prepared by each department and sent to the house by Secretary McAdoo of the treasury.

With this vast sum the government will maintain the battleships and forts and the armies in the states and in the countries that border the several seas; it will keep the scales of justice balanced, endeavor to retain the friendship of foreign nations, look after domestic prosperity and seek at intervals to discover new ways in which to better health, improve living conditions and investigate the merits of the thousand new things in industry and commerce that come to its attention.

The estimates submitted are $22,864,607 in excess of the appropriations for the last fiscal year, but their total falls $39,255,066 below the estimates for that year.

Some Team Owners Agree to Sign Union Contract, but Men Stand Firm for All Employers Agree to Same Terms Before Any Members of the Organization Will Return to Work.

Indianapolis, Dec. 2.—An appeal of team owners who had signed the union contract, asking that their employees be permitted to return to work, was voted down at a general meeting of the Teamsters and Chauffeurs' union, which went on strike.

Thomas J. Farrell, general organizer for the union, asserted none of the men would take out their teams until the employers of 1,000 teamsters had signed the agreement.

Team owners employing about 250 men had agreed to the union's demands, he said.

The first day of the strike was attended by many minor disorders which were quelled by police. Many men and four girls, members of the Garment Workers' union, were arrested. The girls were released but the men were held in $1,000 bonds.

No garbage was collected. Officials of the company which has the contract said that, although only a few of its men had joined the union, the attitude of the strikers in the neighborhood of the barns was threatening.

While many of the department stores and wholesale houses did not attempt to send their wagons on the streets others operated a few vehicles.

Mayor Wallace is satisfied with the work the police has done. "I am convinced they are trying to do their duty," he said.

Many business men volunteered as special police, but were told their services were not needed. Several hundred business men already have been sworn in as a reserve force.

Reports received by Villa say that Salvador Mercedo, military governor of the state, with 2,000 federal troops, has left on foot for Ojinaga, on the United States border near Marfa, Tex. General Jose Ynez Salazar and Pascual Orozco with more than 1,000 federalists are said to have retreated to the mountains west of the city and hundreds of civilians, including women and children, have set out to walk to the United States border.

Besides being the capital of the state Chihuahua, with a population of 35,000, is the metropolis of Northern Mexico.

Neither in the Madero revolution nor in the present uprising has Chihuahua been taken from the federals.

Bloody Battle Is Averted.

Had the rebels reached the city and the federals resisted it was believed that a fight in the city would have resulted in great loss of life and property.

Conditions in the city were said to be such that life there was no longer endurable. The Spanish viaduct which conveyed water from the mountains was reported to have been destroyed and the food supply exhausted.

General Villa telegraphed details of the evacuation to General Carranza at Hermosillo, stating that the proposed advance of the rebels southward to Mexico City would now be expedited.

"The report of the capitulation of Chihuahua is authentic," said Villa. "It came to me in an official dispatch. It is my purpose now to send a force to intercept Mercedo, who is fleeing to Ojinaga, and also to capture Salazar and Orozco."

Hard to Prevent Arms From Entering Mexico.

Washington, Dec. 2.—How the American border patrol has found it almost impossible to enforce the embargo against the shipment of arms and ammunition into Mexico was described in a report from Brigadier General Bliss, commanding the forces on the border, made public at the war department.

Practically the entire population along the international line, the report said, is in sympathy with the Mexican rebels and as a result large quantities of war munitions have been smuggled across in spite of the vigilance of the troops.

General Bliss complained of the vagueness of the law, declaring that the instructions to the army are so general that too much of a task was imposed upon the troops and junior officers.

"The report of the capitulation of Chihuahua is authentic," said Villa. "It came to me in an official dispatch. It is my purpose now to send a force to intercept Mercedo, who is fleeing to Ojinaga, and also to capture Salazar and Orozco."

SUES TO RECOVER $30,000

Bank Seeks to Secure Land Owned by Missing Cashier.

St. Paul, Dec. 2.—Suit has been entered in the district court by the First State bank of North St. Paul against Arthur E. Nelson, the alleged absconding cashier of the institution; Susie E. Nelson, his wife, and William M. Clark of St. Paul. According to the complaint Nelson's defalcation, so far as now known, amounts to more than $30,000, but this figure is expected to be increased when the audit of the bank's accounts is completed.

The bank seeks title to lands and improvements on which a value of $12,717.75 is placed in the complaint. Nelson disappeared about Oct. 1. A sensation followed the news that he was missing. Efforts to locate him have been futile. The bank's officers made good the shortage and the depositors were protected.

HOUSTON MAY CUT FREE SEED EXPENSE

Secretary Favors Changing Plan of Distribution.

Washington, Dec. 2.—People who have received free seeds from the government will not be so favored in the future if congress adopts a recommendation of the secretary of agriculture contained in the book of estimates submitted.

The senators and representatives from Minnesota distributed about 350,000 packages of flower and vegetable seeds this year.

It is true that in some cases the government seed sometimes resulted in crops of vegetables on front lawns where only grasses and flowers are supposed to grow, but the custom was and is popular.

Secretary Houston asked for an appropriation of $296,000 for the purchase of seed, a decrease of $146,000 in the amount made available for the purpose at the last session.

Mr. Houston says he desires to discontinue the indiscriminate distribution of seed by members of congress and desires to return to the former practice of distributing where they will do the most good.

FIVE MEN ARE ENTOMBED

One Rescued and One Other Known to Be Safe.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 2.—Five miners were entombed by a cave-in, which extended from the fourth level to the thirteenth level of the Golden Circle mine here, and spread to the Christmas mine adjoining.

One of the five was rescued and one is known to be alive and uninjured in the Christmas mine. The fate of the remaining three is not known.

The cave-in was caused by a gigantic rock slide from the fourth level and was not precipitated by an explosion.

Receipts in November Decrease $4,500,000 From 1912.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Customs receipts of the government for November fell off about $4,500,000, compared to November, 1912, according to the monthly treasury statement. November was the first full month of operation for the new tariff and if the month was a fair test of the bill's revenue producing powers the annual return from this source will decline more than $50,000,000.

Defaulter Gets Long Term.

Cadillac, Mich., Dec. 2.—C. J. McHugh, defaulting cashier of the Cadillac State bank, was sentenced to serve from seven to twenty years in Jackson prison. McHugh's shortage was estimated at $45,000.

The highwayman boarded the train at Pomona, thirty miles east of here, and jumped off at El Monte, sixteen miles out.

LITTLE DONE AT EXTRA SESSION

Since Passage of Tariff Bill Congress Has Been Idle.

MANY WANTED TO ADJOURN

Only Two Democrats Opposed Mandate of President Wilson—Power of Administration Illustrated by Member in Which Followers Obeyed. Evans of Montana Gains Favor.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 2.—[Special.]—Senators and representatives suffer more from ridicule than criticism, and yet the senate and house invite such ridicule. Perhaps if put upon the bodies collectively there would not be so much resentment, but applied to individuals it causes more ill feeling against the newspapers than severe criticism of actions.

The manner in which the first session of the Sixty-third congress "pestered out" is funny. Here in Washington the national legislature has staged and enacted a great farce. Both houses have remained in session, although both desired to adjourn. There has been no business transacted for two months that could not have been postponed until the regular session. Congress has simply stayed in farcical session—in a most ridiculous position.

Presidential Power. The manner in which President Wilson has controlled the legislative branches since he became president is a monument to the power of the man and the office. There has never been anything like it. In the days when Cleveland exerted power there were grumblings and open revolt. Theodore Roosevelt was roundly abused as a "boss," and many members of his party showed their disapproval.

There has been scarcely anything like disapproval during the first session of the Sixty-third congress. All Democrats have applauded their president and acclaimed him the man most like Jefferson that ever sat in the White House. Republican criticism has been tame, insipid and futile. Woodrow Wilson is the hero of the session he called, for he has dominated it.

Two Bold Men.

It would not be fair to history to let the session slip into oblivion without recording the fact that Myers of Montana in the senate and Thomas of Kentucky in the house fought for adjournment with all the force at their command, which was one vote each. Both used every parliamentary expedient to secure a formal adjournment of the session, but were able to command no one but themselves in support of their efforts. Both are Democrats, and they are entitled to all the credit that can be given them for boldly opposing the wishes of the president.

Made Himself Famous.

It is my theory that a man must do something to earn a reputation in the house. Congressman Evans of Montana is one who has done something, and his mail is full of letters of commendation. He attacked the whipping post in Delaware. He couldn't abolish it, couldn't even get action on his resolution, but that is neither here nor there. The fact that he severely criticized the whipping post and published in the official records the newspaper accounts of the suffering of criminals under the lash has brought him into the spot light. Do something different if you want to come to the front in congress.

Because President Wilson has done a great many things that his predecessors did not do there seems to be a sort of conviction that the administration is breaking precedents at every turn. Such was the announcement when Secretary McAdoo appeared on the floor of the senate during the consideration of the currency bill. It was said that such action was unprecedented. Absolute bosh! Cabinet officers have been on the floor frequently during all administrations when something in which they were particularly interested was considered.

Postmaster General Hitchcock was a most earnest worker when he was trying to get second class rates increased. Secretary Wilson often came to congress and was on the floor when agricultural matters were considered. If one should look into it with all the facts he would find that it has been quite a common occurrence for cabinet officers to be on the floor of the senate and house when the legislation considered concerned their departments.

Owen's Lieutenant.

It is quite apparent that Senator Shafroth of Colorado is to be Chairman Owen's lieutenant during the consideration of the currency bill. Shafroth is a man who keeps steadily on any job he undertakes, and he has attempted to see the currency bill through.

Senator Hitchcock, Owen's opponent, will be alone on his side, for all his supporters on the committee are Republicans. But there are frequent consultations between them. All of the Republicans are expected to take considerable interest in the currency discussion.

WAITING FOR GASES TO OVERCOME BANDIT

Not Known Whether Outlaw Is Dead or Alive.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 2.—Whether Ralph Lopez, the slayer of five officers and a fellow Mexican, lies dead in the Utah-Apex mine, or whether, avoiding the deadly gases in the mine, he has planned a dash for liberty, is a question unanswered.

Though openings in the bulkheads constructed at each of the tunnel mouths poisonous gases have been directed.

The only word from Lopez came when he approached the bulkhead at the mouth of a tunnel and called for his friend, Julio Corrello. But before the latter arrived he had retired into the depths of the mountain.

When Corrello was unable to get a response Mike Vukovich, a brother-in-law of Deputy Mandrich, who was killed in Saturday's battle, broke from a crowd of spectators and, brandishing a revolver, tried to break down the bulkhead to go after Lopez. He pleaded for the opportunity to penetrate the darkness and fight it out with the Mexican.

DECLINE TO SAY "PLEASE"

American Women Now "Demand" the Right to Vote.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Enthusiasm over reports on what already has been accomplished by the woman suffrage movement, and even greater enthusiasm over prophecies of what the future will bring forth, marked the formal opening sessions of the forty-fifth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association.

In calling to order the delegates from all over the country Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the organization, declared: "The time is past when we say, 'Please let women vote.' This has been changed to 'We demand an amendment to the federal Constitution enfranchising women.'"

CRUSADE AGAINST SPEEDING

Nearly Five Hundred Autoists in New York Courts.

New York, Dec. 2.—Nearly 500 automobile drivers, both professional chauffeurs and owners of cars, went to the police courts in response to summonses handed to them in a crusade by the authorities against speeding. In November a new monthly record of automobile accident fatalities was established.

Fines of $50 or $25, amounting to $2,500, were collected from those found guilty. More than 100 refused to pay. They were sent to jail for from one to five days.

It is believed the others will be rescued without loss of life.

MONEY TO RUN GOVERNMENT

Congress Is Asked to Appropriate Total of $1,108,681,777.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Congress is asked to appropriate just $1,108,681,777 to operate the government of the United States during the fiscal year, 1915, according to the estimates prepared by each department and sent to the house by Secretary McAdoo of the treasury.

With this vast sum the government will maintain the battleships and forts and the armies in the states and in the countries that border the several seas; it will keep the scales of justice balanced, endeavor to retain the friendship of foreign nations, look after domestic prosperity and seek at intervals to discover new ways in which to better health, improve living conditions and investigate the merits of the thousand new things in industry and commerce that come to its attention.

The estimates submitted are $22,864,607 in excess of the appropriations for the last fiscal year, but their total falls $39,255,066 below the estimates for that year.

Minor Disturbances Occur in Indianapolis Strike.

POLICE MAKE MANY ARRESTS

Some Team Owners Agree to Sign Union Contract, but Men Stand Firm for All Employers Agree to Same Terms Before Any Members of the Organization Will Return to Work.

Indianapolis, Dec. 2.—An appeal of team owners who had signed the union contract, asking that their employees be permitted to return to work, was voted down at a general meeting of the Teamsters and Chauffeurs' union, which went on strike.

Thomas J. Farrell, general organizer for the union, asserted none of the men would take out their teams until the employers of 1,000 teamsters had signed the agreement.

Team owners employing about 250 men had agreed to the union's demands, he said.

The first day of the strike was attended by many minor disorders which were quelled by police. Many men and four girls, members of the Garment Workers' union, were arrested. The girls were released but the men were held in $1,000 bonds.

No garbage was collected. Officials of the company which has the contract said that, although only a few of its men had joined the union, the attitude of the strikers in the neighborhood of the barns was threatening.

While many of the department stores and wholesale houses did not attempt to send their wagons on the streets others operated a few vehicles.

Mayor Wallace is satisfied with the work the police has done. "I am convinced they are trying to do their duty," he said.

Many business men volunteered as special police, but were told their services were not needed. Several hundred business men already have been sworn in as a reserve force.

ZELAYA AGREES TO DEPART

Former Nicaraguan President Going Back to Spain.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The international tangle over the presence in the United States of J. Santos Zelaya, former president of Nicaragua, apparently was solved by Zelaya agreeing to return to Barcelona, Spain, whence he came to New York a month ago.

The agreement came as the result of conferences between Solicitor Folk and counsel for Zelaya and the Nicaraguan government.

In promising to leave the country Zelaya stipulated that he should have ample time to transact important business.

Speaking with his counsel, Cory M. Stadden, over the long distance telephone from New York, Zelaya said the next boat from New York to Barcelona did not sail until Dec. 11 and that he thought he could finish his business by that time.

THE COURT HOUSE CONTROVERSY

The newspapers published on the Cuyuna range in the mining region in the eastern part of Crow Wing county have all expressed their opinion favorable to the building of a new court house, some stronger than others, but with the idea in view that the county with its vast wealth and importance and its certainty to increase in population as the iron mining center of the northwest should provide itself with an adequate and up-to-date building in which to accommodate the growing business of the county. It has been a question in the minds of some as to the sincerity in thus advocating the erection of a building in accord with the population and importance of today and the future of tomorrow in Brainerd, or whether willingness was born of the desire to bring the matter to a vote and defeat the proposed issuance of bonds which would necessarily have to come before the people for their sanction. The Crosby Crucible has ardently urged that the new court house matter should receive the favorable consideration of the court house committee and the county commissioners, but in the current issue of that paper its editor takes the stand that they decided not to build a new court house at Brainerd but to put an addition on the present structure and erect a new jail. The Crucible in detail says:

"Surprised—Well, you see, it is this way. If a new court house was built at Brainerd, one commensurate with the wealth, prominence and dignity of Crow Wing county, it would hardly be wise to remove the county seat to Crosby when this village's population and importance is such as to cast a shadow of gloom and envy over Brainerd. As it is now, when it is decided to put up a new court house, Crosby by will be the logical place to build it, and we will, in reality, be farther ahead of the game than if we had succeeded in showing the committee and the county commissioners, as well as the tax payers, that the new court house should be built now.

No, we were off on the wrong foot entirely and the decision of the committee and the commissioners has brought us to our senses. We were arguing against our better interests. Before, we stood to pay for a handsome addition to Brainerd's public buildings, with little gain to us; now, we stand to get the fine building for Crosby, with much to gain.

As for the jail, shucks, we will give that to the city of Brainerd when the time comes to remove the county seat to Crosby. And the old court house—well, we'll leave that as a monument to the folly of Brainerd citizens for not taking us up when, in taking a too sudden interest in the affairs of our new home county, we advocated that a new court house be built at that place."

The people of Brainerd, and those interested in this section of the county, may find some food for reflection in the above editorial, and it is not at all unlikely although it has the earmarks of a josh, that it reflects what is uppermost in the minds of many in the new mining region that has recently sprung into prominence in the eastern part of the county where several towns are forging to the front as business centers, and in all probability one of which will become a city of some importance as the mines are developed and other industries are attracted on account of business activity which is bound to follow in the wake of the iron ore production, which is yet in its infancy.

In the meantime, however, Brainerd will have developed iron mines within its city limits, and other mines will be developed at our doors which will increase the population probably in proportion to the increase in other sections of the county, and the general peace and serenity of the occasion is in no immediate danger of trouble of this kind, although should opportunity offer, which in time will be thought to have arrived, it will be taken advantage of, as it always is, where the center of population is directly between two sections of a county, and a strife made to wrest the seat of government from its present location. Be that as it may, it seems to the Dispatch that some provision should be made toward providing for a new court house building—there is no question as to its need at the present time and more so within the next few years. Even should steps be begun at once before a modern, up-to-date structure could be erected and the building finished and equipped, without additional room in the meantime, the congestion would undoubtedly warrant the movement.

The question of the disposition of the present building and the site for the new structure would be questions for future consideration after it was ascertained by vote whether the people of Crow Wing county consider this to be the opportune time, or whether they wish to wait until some future time before providing a building in which to house the growing business of the county, and provide a court house commensurate with the wealth and population of present and future years.

In the meantime the seat of government of Crow Wing county is at Brainerd where it will remain.

One of the most unique time tables ever gotten out by the officials of the M. & I. railway according to the Pioneer, is being distributed in Bemidji by General Manager Gemmell who is in that city arranging plans for the accommodation of delegates who will attend the development convention there on the 4th and 5th of December. The time table, which is in the form of a booklet, has both front and back pages artistically colored showing hunters cooking their evening meal and a pretty landscape scene. Climate, crops, hunting grounds and a map of the territory covered by the M. & I. are covered in the booklet as well as the time table of the road. Mr. Gemmell is of the opinion that the Bemidji hotels will be crowded and that sleeping cars will have to be provided for many who attend the meeting. Geo. H. Warner, train master, and R. R. THE COURT HOUSE CONTROVERSY

The newspapers published on the Cuyuna range in the mining region in the eastern part of Crow Wing county have all expressed their opinion favorable to the building of a new court house, some stronger than others, but with the idea in view that the county with its vast wealth and importance and its certainty to increase in population as the iron mining center of the northwest should provide itself with an adequate and up-to-date building in which to accommodate the growing business of the county. It has been a question in the minds of some as to the sincerity in thus advocating the erection of a building in accord with the population and importance of today and the future of tomorrow in Brainerd, or whether willingness was born of the desire to bring the matter to a vote and defeat the proposed issuance of bonds which would necessarily have to come before the people for their sanction. The Crosby Crucible has ardently urged that the new court house matter should receive the favorable consideration of the court house committee and the county commissioners, but in the current issue of that paper its editor takes the stand that the committee and commissioners took the right position when they decided not to build a new court house at Brainerd but to put an addition on the present structure and erect a new jail. The Crucible in detail says:

"Surprised—
Well, you see, it is this way. If a new court house was built at Brainerd, one commensurate with the wealth, prominence and dignity of Crow Wing county, it would hardly be wise to remove the county seat to Crosby when this village's population and importance is such as to cast a shadow of gloom and envy over Brainerd.
As it is now, when it is decided to put up a new court house, Crosby will be the logical place to build it, and we will, in reality, be farther ahead of the game than if we had succeeded in showing the committee and the county commissioners, as well as the tax payers, that the new court house should be built now.

No, we were off on the wrong foot entirely and the decision of the committee and the commissioners has brought us to our senses. We were arguing against our better interests.
Before, we stood to pay for a handsome addition to Brainerd's public buildings, with little gain to us; now, we stand to get the fine building for Crosby, with much to gain.

As for the jail, shucks, we will give that to the city of Brainerd when the time comes to remove the county seat to Crosby. And the old court house —well, we'll leave that as a monument to the folly of Brainerd citizens for not taking us up when, in taking a too sudden interest in the affairs of our new home county, we advocated that a new court house be built at that place."

The people of Brainerd, and those interested in this section of the county, may find some food for reflection in the above editorial, and it is not at all unlikely although it has the earmarks of a josh, that it reflects what is uppermost in the minds of many in the new mining region that has recently sprung into prominence in the eastern part of the county where several towns are forging to the front as business centers, and in all probability one of which will become a city of some importance as the mines are developed and other industries are attracted on account of business activity which is bound to follow in the wake of the iron ore production, which is yet in its infancy.

In the meantime, however, Brainerd will have developed iron mines within its city limits, and other mines will be developed at our doors which will increase the population probably in proportion to the increase in other sections of the county, and the general peace and serenity of the occasion is in no immediate danger of trouble of this kind, although should opportunity offer, which in time will be thought to have arrived, it will be taken advantage of, as it always is, where the center of population is directly between two sections of a county, and a strife made to wrest the seat of government from its present location. Be that as it may, it seems to the Dispatch that some provision should be made toward providing for a new court house building—there is no question as to its need at the present time and more so within the next few years. Even should steps be begun at once before a modern, up-to-date structure could be erected and the building finished and equipped, without additional room in the meantime, the congestion would undoubtedly warrant the movement.

The question of the disposition of the present building affd the site for the new structure would be questions for future consideration after it was ascertained by vote whether the people of Crow Wing county consider this to be the opportune time, or whether they wish to wait until some future time before providing a building in which to house the growing business of the county, and provide a court house commensurate with the wealth and population of present and future years.

In the meantime the seat of government of Crow Wing county is at Brainerd where it will remain.

Saturday afternoon an unusually large and appreciative audience enjoyed a most interesting program ar-daughters.

Miss Olive Emerson, soprano, of St.

her pleasing personality. She was especially enjoyed in the group of English songs, consisting of "If You But Whisper," and "Eileen," Gertrude Sans Souci and responded to a hearty encore.

Mr. Kellher sang before the Musical club last year, consequently his appearance this year was looked forward to with much interest. His voice is of unusual excellence and his songs well adapted to his best tones. "Mother o' Mine" given as an encore, was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Walter Wieland added much to the program with her usual excellent work as accompanist.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns and chrysanthemums.

HAIR DOESN'T DIE—

It has to be killed Hair often continues to live and grow long after the death of the body.
But it is often killed through neglect or misuse. Almost always the woman or man whose hair is falling out, or is stringy, lifeless and dull-looking is entirely to blame because of not giving it the proper care. It is easy to make it more beautiful. Use Harmony Hair Beautifier, to make it glossy, soft and silky, and Harmony Shampoo to keep hair and scalp thoroughly clean.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, deliciously perfumed with true rose, is very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, giving an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleaning. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair, and leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back.
Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston,

Votes in Favor of a Bond Issue of $75,000 for a New City Hall in Brainerd

TO BE SUBMITTED TO VOTERS

Votes Unanimously for $22,000 Bond Issue for Fill to Replace the N. E. Brainerd Bridge

The council demonstrated last night that it stood in the front ranks of the progressives, that it wished to do its share towards improving Brainerd. Here, in a nut shell, is what the council did:

- Voted to submit to the voters at the special election, January 6, 1914:
- 1. Bond issue of $22,000 for a fill to replace Northeast Brainerd bridge.

- 3. Northeast corner of south Fifth and Laurel Sts. owned by city, for city hall site.
- 4. The new charter known as the city manager plan.

The council voted down the resolution presented for the issuance of $110,000 bonds for a municipal gas plant.

Considerable street paving was also ordered placed in.

The mayor, R. A. Henning, was delegated to attend the meeting at Gardner auditorium Tuesday evening, called for the organization of an Associated Charities.

J. M. Elder addressed the council on the best material for street paving, recommending the purchase of crushed rock from the farmers.

BRAINERD MAKES BID FOR MEET

Delegation of Prominent Citizens will Visit Metropolis of Northern Minnesota and

ASK FOR THE 1914 CONVENTION

Northern Minnesota Development Association Will be Largely Attended at Bemidji

A representative body of Brainerd and Crow Wing county citizens will attend the annual meeting of the N. M. D. Association at Bemidji on Thursday and Friday of this week and will ask the association to hold their 1914 annual meeting in this city. The claims of Brainerd as a convention city will be presented and the delegation seem to think that their invitation will be accepted.

R. R. Wise and W. H. Gemmell, who returned from the north today, say that much interest has been aroused and that the Bemidji meeting will be a hummer, many delegations coming in special cars, and that Bemidji is preparing to take care of one of the largest gatherings in the history of that city. The fact that Brainerd wants the next winter meeting has already been heralded throughout the northern counties and is being favorably discussed. As is always the case in occasions of this kind the larger the delegation the better impression is made and it is hoped that all who have signified their intention of going to this meeting will be on hand to take the train at midnight Wednesday, arriving in Bemidji early Thursday morning. Only a limited number of persons have been interviewed, and as it is impossible to see everybody the committee wants it generally understood that every man who can accompany the delegation is invited to go and boost for Brainerd and the 1914 convention.

Among those who have signified their intention of going up to 3 o'clock this afternoon are:

LARGE CROWDS ATTENDING

Seventh Street Norwegian Lutheran Church Filled Last Night to Hear Hon. A. C. Rankin

The Seventh Street Norwegian Lutheran church was well filled last night to hear Hon. A. C. Rankin speak on the "Use and Abuse of Liquor."

Mr. Rankin is a unique character. In appearance he is a striking person on the platform. His tall, lithe figure, his white, wavy hair and his expressive face, all help the orator in attracting attention and holding interest. He can impersonate anything from an old woman with a squeaky voice to a drunken fool.

Last night he kept his audience laughing for some time with his amusing impersonations. His characterization of the Scotch-Irish folk among whom he was reared near Pittsburgh, Pa., with their love of whiskey and the strict observance of the Sabbath, was full of human interest.

The meetings will be held every night this week, except Saturday, in the Seventh Street Norwegian Lutheran church. Mr. Rankin will lecture tonight on "Personal Responsibility and the Weak Brother." The admission is free and everyone is welcome.

They are accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends, in which the Dispatch joins, hoping they may enjoy continued happiness and prosperity.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

Ira Arnold, Son of Mrs. Sophia L. Arnold, Passed Away Early This Morning at His Home

He had been attending high school where he showed his bright and studious qualities, making many friends there. This year he became sick and was unable to attend school.

He leaves his mother, Mrs. Arnold and two sisters, Mrs. Alva Alden of Staples and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, of Nymore, and two brothers, Bert Arnold and Earl Arnold of Staples. No funeral arrangements have been announced at this time because all members of the family have not been communicated with. The sympathy of their many friends has been freely extended the family in its sad bereavement.

MRS. WILCOX DEAD

Mrs. T. M. Wilcox Passed Away Nov. 24 at Little Falls—Bedridden Over 25 Years

Mrs. Lydia Wilcox, wife of T. M. Wilcox, died at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, November 24 at her home at 912 Fifth street northeast, says the Little Falls Transcript. Death was caused by cancer of the stomach.

Mrs. Wilcox had suffered for many years from nervous paralysis and had been bedridden for over 25 years.

Mrs. Wilcox had a remarkable disposition, never complaining of her affliction and although unable to leave her bed for over a quarter of a century she was always cheerful and ready to look at the best side of everything.

The deceased was born at Peru, N. Y., in June, 1843. She was married Dec. 1, 1866, at Dannemara, N. Y., to T. M. Wilcox and two years later came with him to Morrison county, settling in Belle Prairie. For the past 15 years she had lived in Little Falls.

She is survived by a brother, Lyman Signor, of Little Falls and her husband and four children, Mrs. Lucia Cota of Proctor, Henry Wilcox of Swanville, Merton Wilcox of Knife River and C. Wilcox of Brainerd.

The funeral was held from the house at 2 and from the church at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. L. L. Harris conducting the services.

OLD FOLKS FIND NEW REMEDY RELIEVES ALL KIDNEY MISERIES

Sleep disturbing bladder weaknesses, backache, rheumatism, and the many other kindred ailments which so commonly come with declining years, need no longer be a source of dread and misery to those who are past the middle age of life.

The new discovery, Hindipo, relieves all such disorders because it removes the very cause of the trouble. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands and cells, and gives the kidneys new strength to do their work properly.

It neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid substances that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; and makes the kidneys filter and sift out all the poisonous waste matter from the blood and drive it out of the system.

It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, Hindipo is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work immediately and more than a few doses are seldom required to relieve even the most chronic, obstinate case.

Gemmell, who returned from the north today, say that much interest has been aroused and that the Bemidji meeting will be a hummer, many delegations coming in special cars, and that Bemidji is preparing to take care of one of the largest gatherings in the history of that city. The fact that Brainerd wants the next winter meeting has already been heralded throughout the northern counties and is being favorably discussed. As is always the case in occasions of this kind the larger the delegation the better impression is made and it is hoped that all who have signified their intention of going to this meeting will be on hand to take the train at midnight Wednesday, arriving in Bemidji early Thursday morning. Only a limited number of persons have been interviewed, and as it is impossible to see everybody the committee wants it generally understood that every man who can accompany the delegation is invited to go and boost for Brainerd and the 1914 convention.

Among those who have signified their intention of going up to 3 o'clock this afternoon are:

F. A. Farrar, W. H. Gemmell, R. R. Wise, Carl Zapffe, C. A. Allbright, Geo. H. Gardner, F. H. Gruenhagen, N. H. Ingersoll, Iver Benson, A. M. Opsahl, Dr. J. L. Camp, L. Knudson, John Larson, H. I. Cohen, A. J. Halsted, C. S. Newman, E. A. Lamb.

LARGE CROWDS ATTENDING

Seventh Street Norwegian Lutheran Church Filled Last Night to Hear Hon. A. C. Rankin

The Seventh Street Norwegian Lutheran church was well filled last night to hear Hon. A. C. Rankin speak on the "Use and Abuse of Liquor."

Mr. Rankin is a unique character. In appearance he is a striking person on the platform. His tall, lithe figure, his white, wavy hair and his expressive face, all help the orator in attracting attention and holding interest. He can impersonate anything from an old woman with a squeaky voice to a drunken fool. Last night he kept his audience laughing for some time with his amusing impersonations. His characterization of the Scotch-Irish folk among whom he was reared near Pittsburgh, Pa., with their love of whiskey and the strict observance of the Sabbath, was full of human interest.

The meetings will be held every night this week, except Saturday, in the Seventh Street Norwegian Lutheran church. Mr. Rankin will lecture tonight on "Personal Responsibility and the Weak Brother." The admission is free and everyone is welcome.

MRS. WILCOX DEAD

Mrs. T. M. Wilcox Passed Away Nov. 24 at Little Falls—Bedridden Over 25 Years

Mrs. Lydia Wilcox, wife of T. M. Wilcox, died at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, November 24 at her home at 912 Fifth street northeast, says the Little Falls Transcript. Death was caused by cancer of the stomach.

Mrs. Wilcox had suffered for many years from nervous paralysis and had been bedridden for over 25 years.

Mrs. Wilcox had a remarkable disposition, never complaining of her affliction and although unable to leave her bed for over a quarter of a century she was always cheerful and ready to look at the best side of everything.

The deceased was born at Peru, N. Y., in June, 1843. She was married Dec. 1, 1866, at Dannemara, N. Y., to T. M. Wilcox and two years later came with him to Morrison county, settling in Belle Prairie. For the past 15 years she had lived in Little Falls.

She is survived by a brother, Lyman Signor, of Little Falls and her husband and four children, Mrs. Lucia Cota of Proctor, Henry Wilcox of Swanville, Merton Wilcox of Knife River and C. Wilcox of Brainerd.

The funeral was held from the house at 2 and from the church at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. L. L. Harris conducting the services.

OLD FOLKS FIND NEW REMEDY RELIEVES ALL KIDNEY MISERIES

Sleep disturbing bladder weaknesses, backache, rheumatism, and many other kindred ailments which so commonly come with declining years, need no longer be a source of dread and misery to those who are past the middle age of life.

The new discovery, Hindipo, relieves all such disorders because it removes the very cause of the trouble. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands and cells, and gives the kidneys new strength to do their work properly.

It neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid substances that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; and makes the kidneys filter and sift out all the poisonous waste matter from the blood and drive it out of the system.

It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, Hindipo is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work immediately and more than a few doses are seldom required to relieve even the most chronic, obstinate case.

Canadian-Cuyuna Mining Co. Report. ed to Have Taken Over Lease of 13-45-30 Lands

IS OF BENEFIT TO BRAINERD

Exploration of the Judge G. W. Holland Tracts Bequeathed to the City of Brainerd

It is reported that negotiations have been completed which insure the operation by the Canadian-Cuyuna Mining Co., financed by Minneapolis men, of the lands in section 13, township 45, range 30 east of Brainerd. The five parcels have been explored by the Longyear Exploration Co. Aiding in the negotiations was Ray Seeley, formerly of the Algona Steel Co., of Canada. The southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter are owned by R. K. Whiteley. The east half of the northwest quarter is owned by Cuyler Adams of Deerwood, C. A. Albright, R. J. Hartley, Dr. W. Hemstead, Con O'Brien of Brainerd. Also explored by the Longyear people, but not in these negotiations, are the west half of the northeast quarter in which Paul M. Hale, of Deerwood, is interested and the east half of the northeast quarter in which Cuyler Adams, of Deerwood, is interested. It is said by some that the overburden is of such moderate depth that it would pay to start a pit mine here. The development of the property will prove of great benefit to Brainerd, being only three miles east and it also indicates the general activity apparent on the south range.

The city council of Brainerd, as soon as the city acquires complete title, will have the properties which Judge G. W. Holland gave the municipality explored. On the south range lies one tract which is in direct line with the Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining Co. lands on the south side near Sixth street. The other tract lies north of the Northern Pacific railway foundry.

At the Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining Co. mine in the city limits the shaft is down 50 feet and Capt. John Martin expects to blow the whistle of his power plant in ten days. Piping and boiler work will soon be finished. But 42 feet more must be traversed to reach the ore body, the material to be penetrated being hard pan. Sixteen men and two teams are employed at present and more will soon be added.

The Barrows mine is working on its No. 3 compartment shaft and is stockpiling.

In the southwest quarter of section 20, township 46, range 28, near Orland, Pat Hines is reported to have found a fine grade of ore, some 68 per cent ore being discovered.

At the Adams mine the drift from the shaft is expected to get into ore in about 90 feet, when stockpiling will be commenced. This mine, controlled by Cuyler Adams, is one of the best equipped on the entire range. Mr. and Mrs. Cuyler Adams have gone to California where they will spend the winter. Cuyler Adams and R. M. Adams, their sons, are in charge of the mine in Mr. Adams' absence.

The state tax commission is reported to have sent to the college of mines of the University of Minnesota for investigation about 400 descriptions of property on the Cuyuna range, and on its report will be based subsequent taxation. Prof. E. P. McCarthy will have immediate charge of the work, being assisted by members of the faculty.

A geological survey is being made under the direction of Prof. Frank Leverett, its province being northern Minnesota. The geological map is one of the features, being reported to have cost $10,000.

Prof. A. W. Johnson, of the department of geology, was on the range this summer gaining data for a map of the range and the ore deposits. Much assistance was given him by George H. Crosby, Ben Milzen, Capt. G. A. Anderson, H. J. Kruse, B. B. Gaylord and others of Crosby, Carl Zapffe of Brainerd and the late Salisbury F. Adams of Deerwood. Prof. Johnson was particularly impressed with Mr. Adams, who had written much on the geological formation of the Cuyuna and whose untimely death cut short his work in the scientific world. The book will appear some time next summer and will be the joint production of state and nation. The activity of the University of Minnesota in the field of mining and geological work is a good indication of the wrestling from the University of Wisconsin of its hitherto undisputed supremacy in the mining field. In every camp on the Mesaba one now finds graduates of the college of mines of the University of Minnesota and within a short period the same may be said of the Cuyuna and other ranges of Minnesota.

A drill is operating on the Norcross property near Bay Lake. This Clearwater and Bay Lake range runs parallel to the south range and for a short distance on its extreme eastern end in the vicinity of Deerwood has been explored and mapped out with some degree of certainty. Prominent in the development of this range have been F. L. Pitt of Deerwood, W. S. Pitt of Crosby, Cuyler Adams and P. A. Gough of Deerwood. At one time a half dozen drills were penetrating the earth along the line of attraction in Bay Lake township. The Cuyuna-Mille Lacs Co. early in its history, acquired considerable holdings on the south range, some near Brainerd and some in the vicinity of Mille Lacs lake. However, up to the present time, their development work and explorations have been confined principally to the north range district near Crosby.

It is now learned from the most authentic sources that there is no foundation whatever to the report that the Northern Pacific railway company had acquired the fee of the Kennedy mine at Cuyuna. They are, however, interested somewhat in the Orland Mining company properties on the Cuyuna range which also takes in part of the Kennedy mine. The Northern Pacific railway company is putting in a spur track to the timber shaft of the Kennedy, the right of way extending along the south shore of Rabbit lake. It is not definitely known where the spur track will be connected up with the main line. Ultimately the Northern Pacific is expected to build an extension to tap the Federal mining property and other developed lands at and near Cuyuna.

Active in development work near Cuyuna are the Crow Wing Mining Co., which has a drill on the ground; Cuyler Adams, who has been exploring at the north end of the townsite; the Iron Valley Mining Co., operating across the narrows of Rabbit lake, where the Helmer Exploration Co. has been employed to do the drilling. The Iron Valley people are reported to have found ore at 130 feet depth.

To D. A. Robinson, of Brainerd and Cuyuna, has been awarded the contract to furnish the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs and Cuyuna-Duluth mines with mining timbers.

The Cuyuna-Duluth Iron Co. has taken out a lease on lands in lot 3, section 20, west of the Kennedy mine, where 22 holes are in ore. The Cuyuna-Duluth mine at Ironton is to have another level added, work being done this winter, the board of directors deciding that it was advisable to do this in preference to opening up a new mine on the Federal property near Cuyuna and putting that down to one level.

In the last three months the Iron Mountain Mining Co. has put down a three-compartment shaft and a pumping station and the property has been thoroughly drilled and proven. The 800 line has completed laying steel on the spur line of nine miles to the mine.

Ira Gorham of Minneapolis, is making his headquarters at Crosby this winter. He is looking after the drill work being done on the Gorham-Garrett properties in section 27, township 47, range 29. The drill used there is the first of its kind on the Cuyuna range, a Star drill which has been very successful in the oil fields and its tryout in an iron field will be watched with considerable interest.

Fred H. Merritt is at Brainerd negotiating for options on the south range. It is reported, He was stationed for some time at Crosby looking after drill work of the Merritt companies.

There has been found on the Cuyuna range iron in large quantities, some copper, some rubies and at one time one enterprising farmer in Klondike township thought he had a diamond mine. But it has remained for James H. Miller, Charles Coleman and George B. Woodson to strike something entirely out of this beaten path. They claim to have found lead highly impregnated with radium and in support of the assertion show radiographs which they said were taken by the discoverer Woodson in seven feet of mud and water on Coleman and Miller property. Miller is well known, being the owner of valuable mineral lands and at one time part owner of the Iron Mountain townsite.

John Moe, president of the Cuyuna Range Iron Co., was one of the members accompanying the Duluth Commercial club delegation on its fraternal visit with the Brainerd Commercial club. Mr. Moe said his company owned the fee in 251 acres of north range mineral lands. The company was considering an option to lease the land at a good royalty. The exploration work done shows that the overburden averages about 75 feet. Frank X. Gravel is one of the directors of the company, and he also was enthusiastic about the prospects of the corporation.

C. W. Potts has a drill in the west half of the northeast quarter of section 4, township 46, range 28. F. A. Edson and associates of Deerwood are drilling the Schroeder property on Rabbit lake.

A new country is developing at the extreme north end of Crow Wing county. In the next county beyond, drilling is being done near Pine River. As early as seven years ago W. H. Shea, of Duluth, explored a limited area near Jenkins. C. W. LaDu, formerly of Pine River, and now a practicing attorney at Minneapolis, also drilled near Jenkins. The Bennetts, of Owatonna, are drilling in section 10 of Allen township. Robert Whiteside of Duluth, had drills near Shovel lake. Mining men of Minneapolis are said to have made a strike in township 129, range 28. The Cuyuna Ore-Land Co., in which Duluth and Superior people are interested, has interests in this section.

The Flying Dutchman.

The legend of the Flying Dutchman is thus explained in a work entitled "Researches in Atmospheric Phenomena," by Thomas Foster. The story runs that once upon a time a certain Dutch sea captain swore such a fearful oath that as a punishment for his blasphemy he was condemned by the higher powers to beat about the seas until the day of judgment. His vessel is never known to get into port and is seen at uncertain times sailing at an immense rate before the wind under full press of canvas. In very stormy weather she is seen about the Cape of Good Hope. The explanation is probably found in the waterspout or in some storm driven mist.

Denied Her Privilege.

"I suppose that when you women in the east are given the right to vote you'll be like the woman I heard of in Colorado," said Mr. Henpeck, rather sarcastically.

"Why, what did she do?" inquired Mrs. Henpeck sweetly.

"Oh, she just stood in front of the polling place one afternoon sobbing. 'What do you think of those men; the polls don't close for two hours yet, and they won't let me change my vote,'" said Mr. Henpeck with a grin.—New York Tribune.

Reckall Olive Oil Emulsion is not a stimulant. It is a real nerve and body and blood-building medicine. It puts the system into shape to overcome present and resist future sickness. It does not contain a drop of alcohol nor anything else harmful. But it builds you up, makes you feel better, stronger, livelier—not the first hour—but after a few days, when the strengthening, toning and tissue-building ingredients have had a chance to work through your blood into those muscles and organs that need their vitality-giving help. The four Hypophosphites it contains strengthens the nerves while purest Olive Oil nourishes them.

Reckall Olive Oil Emulsion is an ideal, common-sense invigorator and up-builder. There is direct benefit to you in every one of its ingredients. Robert Burns.

Robert Burns belongs in the very front rank of the world's great men. As a song writer he stands along with Goethe, Heine and Beranger, and as a satirist he ranks well up with Juvenal and Pascal. His "Cotter's Saturday Night," his "Tam O'Shanter" and his "Holy Fair" are simply inimitable, as great in their line as the most consummate masterpieces of the world's greatest writers. Burns was original in the best sense of that word, and his songs, satires, epistles and many of his more serious productions stand forth unique and fresh and powerful as the tints of Titian or the chiseling of Phidias.—New York Journal.

Names of Cities.

Boston is not the only city that has difficulty in the pronunciation of her name. Outsiders consider Boston quite easy. It is St. Louis, New Orleans, Los Angeles, Spokane, Louisville and Houston that are difficult. El Paso itself has two more or less correct pronunciations. Ysleta gains several syllables in the mouths of strangers, and our bereaved sister city across the border has to suffer being called Jewwarreezz by tourists who pass.—El Paso Herald.

Taking a Tip.

"Don't you think that a man forfeits his self respect by taking a tip?" "Well, I never take one on the market that does not expect me to lose respect for my judgment."—Buffalo Express.

FALLING HAIR MEANS

DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp

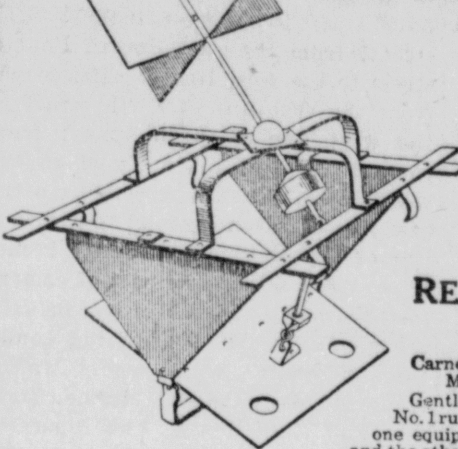

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

READ THIS TESTIMONIAL:

Northwestern Laboratories, Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 20, 1913. Carnegie Automatic Fuel-Saving Co., Minneapolis, Minn. Gentlemen:—Referring to the preliminary test No. 1 on two boilers located at the Hotel Hastings one equipped with Carnegie Automatic Fuel Saver and the other without. I beg to advise that on this preliminary run, the boiler equipped with the Fuel Saver showed an increase in efficiency over the one without of 15 1/2 per cent, which is as much as to say, that under the same conditions, the one without burned 15 1/2 per cent more coal to do the same amount of work than was required by the one equipped. Very truly yours, (Signed) L. H. Gardner, C. E.

Sacrificed to the Nile.

The ancient Egyptians, if they did not worship the river Nile, held it in great veneration and even dread. The Nile had its appointed priests, festivals and sacrifices, and if its rising was delayed for a single day a beautiful young girl was thrown into its waters and drowned in order to appease the god's anger and secure his favors.
